Letter to Bob

Hi Bob,

How are you? It is hot in Hong Kong. Hong Kong never snows.

My school is in Lok Fu. I get up at six thirty in the morning. School starts at eight o'clock in the morning. We have lunch at half past one in the afternoon. We eat in the canteen. School ends at three o five in the afternoon. I walk home with my friend, Mary.

How about you? What time do you get up? What time do you go to school? Please tell me about your school day.

Cheers,

Sam

Hi Bob,

How are you doing? It is hot in Hong Kong. Hong Kong never snows.

My school is in Lok Fu. I get up at six twenty-five and leave home at seven twenty-five in the morning. School starts at eight fifteen. We have lunch at twelve forty-five. We don't eat in the canteen. We eat in the classroom. School ends at three o five in the afternoon. I go to the library with my friend, Tina.

Have a wonderful day! Please write back.

Cheers,

Sam

Letter to Bob

Hi Bob,

How are you doing? It is summer in Hong Kong, so it is warm now.

I moved to a new home this year. Now I need to get up earlier and I leave home at seven twenty in the morning. School starts at eight fifteen. We have lunch at twelve forty-five. We eat in the classroom. School ends at three o five in the afternoon. I go home by school bus.

How about you? When is your summer camp? Please write back soon.

Cheers,

Sam
