This is an interesting story. Last Sunday, Gary was very busy. He has brown hair, two small ears, two big eyes, brown eyebrows and a big mouth. He is short. He usually wakes up at 8:30a.m.

First, he read some comics in the morning. The comics were funny, Gary laughed merrily and loudly.

Next, Gary visited Grandpa at noon. His Grandpa lives in Sha Tin. Gary bought some fruits, a bottle of coke and a box of cake. Gary's Grandpa thanked Gary and said, 'You're such a good boy! Thank you!' Then Gary replied, "No problem, Grandpa!"

Then, Gary left the building and went to a recreation centre. There are a lot of things that you can do. You can eat in a restaurant, buy things such as vegetables in the supermarket, play table tennis or have drawing lessons. Gary decided to play table tennis with his friend, Jack who was also in the recreation centre. The game was exciting. They played skillfully. After 10 minutes, Gary won the game. Gary was happy.

After that, Gary had a drawing lesson. He was very tired after playing table tennis with his friend, Jack. Then, Jack fell asleep. When he woke up, the lesson had already finished. He drew nothing. He decided to go home after the lesson.

Finally, when he went home, it's already 8 o'clock. Dinner was ready. After eating dinner, he went to sleep. This story tells us not to have too many plans in a day, or else you'll get very tired.

Weather: Sunny

Date:28th December

Today was a great day for the Girl Guides.

It was sunny in the morning. Our leader brought us to the Cafeteria Old Beach in Tuen Mun. We went there because we wanted to have a picnic and an outdoor service there. When we just arrived at the beach, we saw so much rubbish on the beach. 'Oh! The beach smells disgusting!' said Lisa. 'Hey! Let's collect all the rubbish on the beach!' Said the Girl Guide leader.

Next, we started to collect the rubbish and pick up some plastic bags and bottles with old barbecue forks. We wore gloves to put the rubbish into large plastic bags. I was satisfied and felt meaningful when I was cleaning the beach.

After finishing our work, we had a picnic on the beach. Lisa took a deep breath and said, 'Yeah! The beach is clean now!' Then, we shared our food.

We ate fruits, sandwiches and drank soft drinks. We were relaxed because we ate many delicious food.

Eventually, we played some ball games and built sandcastles happily. We took photos, sang songs on the beach. The Girl Guide leader said, 'Hey! We did a meaningful job today. Thank you all of you!' We had a great time after doing this meaningful job.

After this social work, I have learnt that we are responsible for keeping the environment clean. I will do it again in the future.
