Last Sunday was a family day.I spent my whole day with my dad,my mum and my sister.

In the morning,we had our breakfast early.I played with rice and wasted the food.My mum and dad were very angry but I didn't listen to them.

In the afternoon,we have our lunch at Tony's fast food shop.I played with my mobile phone for a long time.My family waited me for finishing my lunch for long time.They were angry and blame me for not having my lunch.My mum told me to finish my lunch quickly.

Suddenly a beggar came in to the fast food shop.She walked around and searched for food. When the people left,she ate the leftovers from others.

I think the beggar was poor so I gave my lunch to her.She was very happy. I learned that I should not waste the food anymore.

Helpful Susan

Last year, Susan became a prefect, she turned over a new leaf by helping out in a lot of people.

At school, she always helped teachers take exercise books by herself. She also helped some schoolmates with their homework. She also helped the class to clean the blackboard. As she was being so helpful, all the teacher liked her so much, she was over the moon.

At home, Susan helped Mum to do plenty of housework such as washing the dishes, folding the clothes, sweeping the floor and dusting the shelves by herself. Mum was on cloud nine because Susan could do these things all by herself.

At the elderly home, she wanted to break the ice, so she made the elderly cookies all by herself. She talked and played with the elderly happily. She also taught them how to make beautiful crafts by themselves! She played musical instruments for them, too. The elderly were very delighted.

Susan has learnt a lot of by helping others. She will invite her little brother, Sam, to help out in the future. She will go to a lot of places such as orphanages, charity houses and SPCA with Sam. She thinks helping people let her being in seventh heaven and they will help more people by themselves in the future!

Hong Kong is on the eastern side of the Pearl River estuary in Southern China. With over 8 million people of various nationalities in a 1,104- square-kilometre territory.

Its climate is sub-tropical and it's very hot and humid all day. In Hong Kong, Chinese and English are the two official languages. The currency in Hong Kong is HKD.

Hong Kong is famous for its cuisine. We can eat many kinds of food, like dim sum, barbecue pork, turnip cakes or more. Lin Heung Tea House is a historical tea house in Hong Kong where we can eat dim sum and see some old dim sum carts being pushed around in the restaurant. The restaurant itself carries one hundred years of history, so traditional culture stayed in it. There is also classic designs leaving in the restaurant. I would highly recommend it to foreigners visiting Hong Kong.
