(2) Our school's measures for creating an inclusive learning environment included (one or more options can be selected)#:

- Translating major school circulars/important matters on school webpage
- Organising activities which promote cultural integration/raise sensitivity to diverse cultures and religions (please specify):

The Hong Kong Heritage Museum visiting day allows non-Chinese speaking students to walk out of the classroom and study outdoors to get to know and understand Hong Kong's culture from multiple angles. Students use the Chinese they learned in class to apply in their conversations and communications in group discussion when completing assigned tasks such as reading the worksheets and playing games which focus on Chinese culture in different Children's Discovery Gallery in the museum. Different families get to know each other and share their interest in the galleries that exhibits diverse treasures of our heritage. It arouses the interest of the non-Chinese speaking students and their families participating in museum activities and getting more understanding about the Chinese culture.

- Providing opportunities for NCS students to learn and interact with their Chinese-speaking peers in school or outside school (e.g. engaging NCS students in uniform groups or community services) (please specify):

- Other measure(s) (please specify):

(3) Our school's measures for promoting home-school cooperation with parents of NCS student(s) included (one or more options can be selected)#:

- Appointing assistant(s) who can speak English and/or other language(s) facilitating the communication with parents of NCS student(s)
- Discussing the learning progress (including learning of Chinese) of NCS student(s) with their parents on a regular basis
- Providing parents of NCS student(s) with information on school choices/further studies/career pursuits for their children
- Explaining to parents of NCS student(s) and emphasising the importance for their children to master the Chinese language

- Other measure(s) (please specify):

[#: The support measures mentioned in Parts (1) to (3) above are for reference only. Depending on the different learning progress and needs of NCS student(s) of each school year, as well as allocation of school resources, our school will adjust the support measures concerned.]
